Bilateral Meeting Between the National Audit Office of Malta and the State Audit Office of Croatia

30-10-2023

Today, 30th October, the National Audit Office of Malta (NAO) hosted a bilateral meeting with the State Audit Office of Croatia (SAO). This meeting took place at the NAO headquarters in Floriana and served as a platform for fostering cooperation and knowledge exchange between these two State Audit Institutions.

The delegation from the State Audit Office of Croatia comprised Mr. Ivan Klesic, Auditor General, Mr. Drazen Broznic, Assistant Auditor General – Head of the Cabinet, and Ms. Anita Materljan, Assistant Auditor General. They were warmly received by Mr. Charles Deguara, the Auditor General of the NAO, who was accompanied by Mr. Noel Camilleri, Deputy Auditor General, and Mr. Brian Vella, External Affairs and Research Officer.

After the exchange of formal introductions and greetings the two sides discussed key topics for the exchange of views, focusing on various audit practices, audit methodologies, audit products beyond audit reports, the significance of independence and autonomy for state audit offices, as well as matters pertaining to the European Union.

The meeting culminated with the signing of a Bilateral Agreement, symbolizing the commitment of both audit offices to enhance cooperation and deepen mutual understanding in the realm of auditing.

Both the National Audit Office of Malta and the State Audit Office of Croatia regarded this bilateral meeting as a valuable opportunity to share expertise and best practices, nurturing an environment of collaboration and shared learning within the audit community. This event represented an important step in enhancing transparency and accountability within their respective public sector.
