Senior officials from the National Audit Office of China visited the National Audit Office of Malta for a meeting on their respective audit practices and possible bilateral cooperation

26-01-2024

The National Audit Office of Malta (NAO) today hosted a bilateral meeting with senior officials from the National Audit Office of China (CNAO) at the NAO's premises in Floriana. This meeting essentially focused on an exchange of views on the principal objective of enhancing bilateral cooperation between the two National Audit Offices.

The CNAO delegation was led by Mr. Li Feng, Deputy Auditor General, and included Mr. Dai Hui and Mr. Zhang Jun, Program Office and Interpreter. The delegation was accompanied by the Chinese Ambassador to Malta.

The delegation and Ambassador were greeted at the NAO premises by Mr. Charles Deguara, Deputy Auditor General. These were then joined by senior officials from the NAO and the Office of the Auditor General.

During this extensive one-day meeting, presentations and discussions were held between the two offices on their respective audit practices and methodologies of both institutions. Presentations were also made on audit case studies, digital technology and environmental audits.

The meeting served as a precursor for the strengthening of bilateral cooperation between the two national audit institutions.

At the end of the meeting, both Heads of delegation, Mr Charles Deguara and Mr Li Feng concluded the meeting with an open sharing of information and discussions held during the day and reaffirmed their willingness to collaborate between the two national audit institutions.
